

Ascension of Southshire To the nation of Yoahatl

Terms

- Southshire will join Yoahatl as an autonomous town under the terms described by Council Decision 9.6
- As an autonomous town, Southshire will be allowed the following sovereign rights
 - The right to retain a separate legal system and legal code from Yoahatl proper free from interference by the government of Yoahatl
 - The right to retain separate citizenship and residency rules from Yoahatl
 - The right to enter into trade agreements and economic relations with foreign powers
 - The right to opt out of contributing men and war materiel in times of conflict
 - The right for the land of Southshire to be considered sovereign and indivisible, unable to be seized by the government of Yoahatl without consent
 - The right to have the opportunity for individuals to become citizens of Yoahatl proper free of legal conflict and this shall be considered different than a dual citizenship
- In return for this, Southshire cedes the following rights to the government of Yoahatl
 - The right to form alliances or military agreements with foreign powers except in cases where the government of Yoahatl consents
 - The right to enter into military conflicts or participate in supplying nations and organizations engaged in warfare except with consent from the government of Yoahatl
 - The right of the government of Yoahatl to hold Southshire citizens accountable for actions which bring threat or reality of military conflict on Yoahatl and to hold them accountable within the main court system of Yoahatl as their actions have violated Southshire's autonomous status within Yoahatl by bringing both into conflict with outside powers
- Southshire's core citizenry is eligible to become citizens of Yoahatl proper and this will confer on them the same rights as all other citizens including factory access, citadel access, unrestricted travel, and the right to use the legal system in full and typical legal standing as any other citizen
- Orinnari, Cinzar, StrPlatinum, and Jyn are to be made citizens of Yoahatl by order of Alcuahatl bgbba
