

Treaty of Exilus

In the Name of the Great Pigeon, the Nation of Exilus has elected to join the Nation of Yoahatl under the following conditions:

Article I: Incorporation

- The full claims of the Nation of Exilus will be absorbed into the Nation of Yoahatl as a homestead owned by Arconis. The city and its current residents are to fall under the protection of Yoahatl.
- Once incorporated into Yoahatl and having achieved a permanent population, Exilus will have a democratically elected leader who can pass laws within the border of the town. However, the rules and laws must not contradict the laws of the Ololtic or Charter.
- Once incorporated by Yoahatl, the Council must consult with the leader of Exilus before reducing any claims formerly belonging to the nation of Exilus.

Article II: Rights and Privileges

- Exilus should be displayed as part of Yoahatl, albeit distinct, on any official claims maps or public announcements.
- The Yoahatl Government will take reasonable actions to recruit newfriends to join the Exilus settlement.

Signatures:

Arconis

Flora_Borealis

NeoTide

ArkenX